STOUT IS SMOTHERED BY 22-0 SCORE

Rademacher Goes 70 Yards for Touchdown

TEAM SHOWS UNEXPECTED STRENGTH IN LINE

The Red and White, in its first conference game of the season, walked away with an easy victory over the strong Stout aggregation on Ramer Field last Saturday. The Stout eleven loomed up large in comparison with the local team, but the aggressive and speedy playing of the normal men out-classed their stalwart opponents in every department of the game.

The River Falls gridders showed up as an efficiently working machine and gave an exhibition of spectacular football.

At no stage of the game was Stout in danger of scoring. The ball was played most of the time on Stout's territory. The game seemed quite safely tucked away at the end of the first half, and ten of the substitutes were given a chance to exhibit their skill. This they did well, holding Stout from making any gains. Keyes played a snappy game in the back-field, and will be looked upon as a valuable sub.

Much open formation was resorted to by both teams. The offense of Stout and the Normal worked equally well in blocking and intercepting passes; however, Stout failed to make much of any gains on intercepted and completed passes, whereas two touchdowns and several long runs were the result of the aerial attack of the locals.

The outstanding feature of the game was the spectacular playing of a number of the Red and White team. To the brilliant work of Ernie Ziebell, at quarter, goes much of the credit of the victory. Ernie made long returns on punts and gained much yardage on several end runs. A pass from Ernie to Nelson in the first quarter netted the first touchdown. Maiers played a line smashing game during his period of play, making a touchdown after repeated gains. Rademacher, at end, intercepted a pass and ran 70 yards for a touchdown.

Scott, at half-back, starred for Stout.

EAU CLAIRE CONFERENCE ATTENDED BY MANY R. F. GRADS

Impromptu Reunion Held

President Ames:

The attendance at the conference was very large. The general program was good, especially the main address. The Grand Opera concert given in the evening was of exceptional merit.

Professor Davison:

Although the announcements of the conference were rather late in appearing, the conference was very well attended. One of the noticeable features was the number of River Falls graduates in attendance—possibly 150. Some of these old grads got together Thursday evening for a

TAKE HOMECOMING IN THE RIGHT SPIRIT

Now that Homecoming is here, it may not be untimely to say a few words about the true significance of the event and the spirit in which it should be taken. Homecoming is intended primarily for the grads who come back, and every student should feel it his duty to try to make it a gala event for every grad. Too many times we see students regarding Homecoming as a chance to quit studying and have a grand celebration. While the alumni of the last two or three years need no help in getting up their pep and having a good time, some of the older grads are likely to be somewhat lost among the many changes in the town and the student body, and it is up to us to see that Homecoming for them is the red-letter day of the year, to be looked back upon until the next one.

Let's go—for a Homecoming that will surpass anything ever seen on this campus.

DEBATE TRYOUTS SOON

Tryouts for this year's debate squad will be held next Wednesday afternoon (Oct. 31) in Mr. Hunt's room beginning at three o'clock. Those trying out have been divided into teams by lot and the tryout will consist of a series of debates between teams. Twenty-two persons, fifteen men and seven women, will contest for nine places on the squad. These nine together with the survivors from last year's squad, Everett Smith, Margaret Bailey, and Art Behnke, will constitute the group from which six will be selected later to represent the Red and White in the inter-normal championship debates. Mr. Hunt, Mr. Hayward, Mr. Goble, Mr. Karges,

Mr. Junfeman, Miss Latta, and Miss Haddow will act as judges; Mr. Mitchell will preside. All members of the faculty and student body are invited to any one or all of these debates, but are requested not to come in or go out during speeches. A schedule of the debates follows. Those trying out will report at the auditorium at the time indicated in the schedule.

DANCE

A large group of students and alumni showed their appreciation of the dance put on by the social committee last Saturday night in South Hall gym. Due to the fact that everyone was hilarious over our victory, and to the newly washed face of the floor, the dance was enjoyed to the fullest extent. We have to thank the new members of the G. O. P. for cleaning the hall. Constance Miller, Reba Offerdahl, and Nick Wiger made the splendid orchestra that furnished the music.

River Falls failed to gain and punted to Stout's 25 yard line. Stout launched an aerial attack. They completed one pass but lost the ball on incompleting passes. Stout punted and the Falls returned the punt to Stout's 45 yard line. The Falls wins the ball on another intercepted pass. A long pass to Moline, who was shifted to end for this play, brought the ball to the 8 yard line. A pass for a touchdown failed. Game ended with the ball on the 8 yard line.

IMPRESSIONS OF THE EAU CLAIRE CONFERENCE

reunion, but the thing to do hereafter is to plan a special big reunion for all the River Falls alumni who attend the conference. This was the custom once, but it needs to be revived.

Professor Malott:

The Friday morning session was a very worthwhile one. Dr. Elizabeth Wood, Psychological clinic, from the Wood, Psychological clinic, from the address on the mental equipment of the child. She emphasized the need of classification of all pupils entering school on the basis of their mental ability. In her address she pointed out the most common mental traits and the treatment of each trait in school work.

Dr. Caroline Hedges of Chicago delivered an address on what the community owes the child. She emphasized three facts in his relation to the community by stating "every child had a right to be well born, he had a right to have medical treatment to correct his defects and a right to his spiritual inheritance.

In the afternoon Dr. Hedges continued her line of argument in an address to the Parent-Teachers' Ass'n. Here she placed the emphasis on the physical care of the child in the home and community. She also emphasized the vital need of plenty of sleep, clean recreation, and a closer relation of the home and the community.

Assistant Supt. W. W. Thiesen of Milwaukee gave a very helpful address on what to do after educational tests have been given. He explained how many simple tests may be made by the teachers to test the child's vocabulary, his knowledge of numbers, of geography, or any other subject. Such work, he pointed out, would aid the teacher materially in knowing how to classify her pupils.

PRES. AMES TO ENTERTAIN THE FOOTBALL SQUAD

In preparation for the Homecoming game this afternoon, Pres. Ames will entertain the football squad at dinner today. Although the menu, as planned by Coach Eggebrecht, is somewhat deficient in frills and desserts, we can assure you that it is right there where it comes to being filling. The dinner will be served in the Domestic Science rooms in South Hall. This is a custom carried out at all large colleges, of having the team eat together just before an important game. We are glad to see it introduced here.

Paynter is offering a 1 pound box of candy to each fellow of the local team scoring a touchdown Saturday. Come on fellows, let's feed the girls.

Albert Fuller is assistant curator in the Milwaukee Public Musium.

"Ted" Dodge left for the "U" of Wisconsin Homecoming, yesterday.

John Gerretson, '23, is Boys' Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Fond du Lac.

Galen Kircher left last week for Milwaukee, where he has accepted a position with the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company.

Josephine Koenig has withdrawn from school because of the illness of her mother.

Marion Wasson, Thelma Segerstrom and Genevieve Stewart shopped in St. Paul last Saturday.

Rollie Donovan received a message from Wausau Monday in regard to several songs. Among them was "My Wonderful One, Who's Sorry Now?"

EXCHANGES

STOUT—"The Stoutonia"

An offer of $5 is made to the one who submits the best words for a school song. This is wanted for their homecoming if possible.

The "Y" put on a very successful mixer picnic on a recent Saturday.

"The Stoutonia" of last week bears a memorial to its editor, Herchel Mason.

WHITEWATER—"The Royal Purple"

Once a month "The Royal Purple" is published in magazine form with additional material.

The faculty reception for students is an annual event at Whitewater.

NORTHLAND—"Student Life"

The chair of Director of Religious Education and Lift has just been filled by the new pastor of the Congregational church of Ashland, Rev. C. W. Warren. He will also aid the Y. M. and Y. W.

A new course in printing has been added to the curriculum this year.

SUPERIOR—"The Peptomist"

It is strange, but at Superior, the students have no voice in arranging their social affairs for the school; the faculty has entire charge of it. Evidently the Superior faculty hasn't enough to keep them busy. The Peptomist, however, advocates an arrangement like our own. That's the spirit, Superior.

LA CROSSE—"The Racquet"

La Crosse licked Lawrence at their homecoming two weeks ago by a score of 12 to 9. According to the Racquet, the homecoming was exceedingly successful in all particulars.

La Crosse printed the following records in football championships:

- 1924—Whitewater
- 1915—Whitewater
- 1916—River Falls
- 1917—La Crosse
- 1918—La Crosse and Milwaukee
- 1919—La Crosse
- 1920—Oshkosh
- 1921—Oshkosh
- 1922—Whitewater.

This was evidently taken from the Blue Book; but the Blue Book is not correct. The record is as follows:

- 1914—Whitewater
- 1915—River Falls
- 1916—River Falls
- 1917—La Crosse
- 1918—La Crosse and Milwaukee tied, but this was the year that very few schools had teams owing to the war.
- 1919—La Crosse
- 1920—Oshkosh
- 1921—Stout
- 1922—Whitewater and Eau Claire tied.

River Falls had the Northern Championship in 1917, and in 1919. We had no team in 1918.

LAWRENCE—"The Lawrentian"

Under the proposed system to be voted upon by All-College club, the editor and business manager of the annual, the Arfel, will be chosen by the All-College club at the end of the first year to work during their sophomore year as assistant to the editor and business manager already in office and thus become thoroughly familiar with their duties before taking them over in their Junior year. Such a system would eliminate a great amount of unnecessary waste.

Ripon, the traditional rival of Lawrence, will be the opponents at Lawrence's homecoming, Saturday, Nov. 3rd.

Winfred Bird and Harold Ritchey of River Falls and Harry Snyder of Prescott are in the Men's Glee Club.

The high schools of Wisconsin and the colleges of the Mid-West conference will debate this year on the same question that the Normal schools of Wisconsin debated on last year—that Congress should enact a law embodying the essential provisions of the Huber Unemployment Bill, constitutionality conceded.

Glidden, Wis., where Allen McAndrews, '23, is principal, was saved from the flames of forest fires by the efforts of all the people. The fire came within a mile of the city.

LOYAL LEGION OF LEATHER LUNGS

Our men now have an organization, which they say will go. Its purpose is to promote school spirit and pep. Membership is unlimited, every man is needed and wanted. Meetings are held whenever something needs to be done in a hurry and done right. They already have a large number in their organization; and under the capable leadership of the advisor, Mr. Karges and the president, Wallace Cole, they are threatening to vie with the G. O. P. We surely should have some real River Falls PEP now.

A large number of former students returned to their old Alma Mater to see the game with Stout last Saturday. The class of '23 was well represented by a bunch including—Lucy Demulling, New Richmond; Frances Gartland, Pepin; Dean Goodrich, Wilson; Florence Harrigan, Prescott; Lorin Strong, Centuria; Claude Buck, Balsam Lake; Maude Hawkins, Hudson; Clark Ingli, Earl Luther, Humbird; Ruth Munson, Prescott; Elmer Hohman, Durand; Ed. Casey, Hammond; Phil Mitchell, Osceola; Pauline Norseng, Hammond; Nellie Roese, Pepin; Vidle Tubbs, Hudson; Kendall Wentz; Alpha Younggren, Spring Valley; Harry Pratt, U. of Minn. Other Alumni, who were at the game were: Irene Stewart, '22, Glenwood City; "Corie" Guerke, "Peg" Follansbee, '22, Prescott; Thales Webster, Arcadia; Clarence Peterson, '19, Durand.

AG. NEWS

The Agrifallian Club met Thursday night of last week in Mr. Johnson's room where a very interesting meeting was held. Due to sickness of a member who was to take part in the program, the entertainment was rather short. However, much fun and valuable information was brought in parliamentary law practise. This is considered a very important part of an ag. man's education so it was decided to spend ten minutes of each meeting with this work.

A feature of the activities of the club for the first semester is a contest between two teams composed of club members. Two captains have been elected to lead the teams. The purpose of this contest is to increase the attendance at the meetings. At each meeting, each captain will take roll of his members and each one's presence will count 1 point. The side having the best or most attendance for the first semester, will be given a regular feed by the side having the least attendance. For every new member that a team gets, it will receive 5 points toward the final attendance. So, men, find out the team you are on so that you can be at every meeting from now on. Madison and Wickelman were appointed captains of the two teams, so set them to find out where you belong.

The next meeting will be held the first Thursday night in November. A very interesting program is being arranged and will be published in this column next week.

Don't expect a feed every meeting as that is not the purpose of the organization, but come out and listen to the programs as they will be of great benefit to you in your ag. work.

The ag. faculty attended the Northwestern Teachers' meeting at Eau Claire last week. They report that at the ag. sectional meeting there were more R. F. graduates present than from all the other normals together. Leroy Kuenning, '14, gave a very interesting talk at this meeting.

Selling for $205.00, one of the Normal farm's Holstein heifer calves, topped the recent Holstein sale at Ellsworth.

John Imrie, State Institute Conductor of Roberts, will give a talk at the next Agrifallian meeting.

The film, "Down to the Sea in Ships," is scheduled to be shown in the Normal Auditorium, November 2 and 3. This show is for the purpose of raising funds to help finance the poultry show which will be put on the first of December. This film is one of the best that was produced last year. Watch for further advertising.

AURELIA AND LINCOLNIAN

At a joint meeting the two organizations had an interesting discussion last Thursday. The entertainment was in the form of a debate: Resolved, That women are more obstinate than men. The Aurelia had the affirmative side of the question, hence the advantage. However, the boys chose Art Behnke as their model of an obstinate man, so not all the advantages were the girls'. We fear it would be disastrous to us, otherwise we should like to publish the conclusion.

Y. W. C. A.

One of the most important meetings of the year was held last Tuesday. The evening was devoted to the initiation of the new members; or to the candle light service. All the girls were dressed in white.

The school owes a vote of thanks to Bjerstedt & Benson for the clever football booklet which they have put out and distributed to the students. This is another evidence of the way in which this firm, as well as most of the other local business men, have supported every school activity.
