Beginning at 8 a.m., the 56 concert organizations present were divided into five categories. Four junior bands, 21 concert bands, three orchestras, nine Glee Clubs and 20 choral groups participated in a schedule of events that lasted the entire day.

The bands performed in the North hall auditorium and the men's gymnasium, while the choral groups sang in the Little Theatre and South hall gym.

The day ended with a parade of bands that started on campus, continued on Locust to Main and north to Pine street. The procession was led by the River Falls Drum and Bugle Corps.

SENATE CANDIDATES TO BE NOMINATED AT WEDNESDAY CONVO

Candidates for the election, May 4, of next year's Student Senate members, may be nominated at an all-school assembly in North hall auditorium on Wednesday, May 2, at 10 a.m.

DeWayne Meyer, president of the Senate, said that nominations may be made by campus organizations in writing to any Senate member prior to the meeting. All nominations, both from the floor of the assembly and those made before the convocation, must have five vocal seconds at the meeting.

According to the constitution of the Senate, the names of all incumbent members, that do not graduate, are automatically placed on the ballot for election of the following year's members. These persons do not have to be nominated at the assembly or be supported by an organization.

The four class presidents become members of the Student Senate at the time of their election.

Mr. Meyer stressed the fact that students should consider the nomination and election of Student Senators as something more than a "popularity poll." He also said that the Senate would welcome nominations before the assembly and that promptness in entering candidates would be appreciated.

European Debaters Visit 15 States

On a tour since March 1 which will take them to appearances in 15 states, two Scandinavian debaters will make their only Wisconsin appearance in River Falls.

The debate in North Hall auditorium is open to the student body with admission by activity ticket.

The Scandinavian team will have participated in debates in Iowa, Missouri, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and North Dakota before arriving in River Falls. They will continue on to Minnesota and South Dakota before returning home.

The teams will debate the official national debate topic in their meet here.

In the program here Wednesday he will read selections from the major American poets including Longfellow, Emerson, Whitman, Sandburg, Benet, Robinson and Frost.

There will be no reserved seats or advance tickets for the convocation, a program in the concert and lecture series. The audience will be limited to the seating capacity of the Little Theatre.

KUECHLER, SORENSON NAMED IN PRIMARY

Don Kuechler and James Sorenson were selected as the candidates for president of next year's junior class in a primary election Wednesday, April 18. Approximately 60 per cent of the class voted.

Following the primary, Richard Kinney, class president, announced the slate of candidates for the general election of all officers to be held in North hall aud. from 10-11 a.m. on Wednesday, April 25.

The candidates in Wednesday's election listed by office, are as follows: President, Don Kuechler and James Sorenson; Vice-president, Paul Czarniecki and Calvin Martell; Secretary, Ruth Hajek; Treasurer, Arlin Albrecht and Charles Wallin.

A primary election was not necessary for offices other than president. The sophomores' constitution states that a primary is required only when there are more than two candidates for any office.

The general election will be conducted as part of a class meeting.

President E. H. Kleinpell will serve as a panel member on a discussion of "Futures in Higher Education in Wisconsin." The group is to be moderated by W. D. McIntyre, president of the State College Board of Regents. Other members of the panel to be held during the Friday morning general meeting include: William W. Clark, chairman, Wisconsin Senate Committee on Education and Public Welfare; George Watson, state superintendent of public instruction, and Charles Gelatt, chairman of the coordinating committee of higher education in Wisconsin.

All classes will be cancelled Friday, April 27, because of the AWSCF conference in Eau Claire.

At the Friday evening banquet session in the college Student Union dining hall, Prof. Sidney Hook, head of the department of Philosophy at New York University will give the address. One of the country's leading philosophers and winner of the Butler Silver Medal for Distinction in Philosophy, Columbia University in 1954, Prof. Hook is a widely known educator, author of "Education for Modern Man," in 1946; "Hersey Yes; Conspiracy No," in 1953, and other books.

Faculty members from the ten Wisconsin State Colleges will attend the conference. Two general sessions and 19 sectional meetings are scheduled for Friday. The delegate assembly will meet on Saturday morning.

Sonja Haroldson, Don Wallesver, James Sorenson, Roger TeHennepe, Carl Sharp, Carl Adams, Ron Wunrow and Robert Johnson will be admitted to the organization after having met the entrance requirement of participating in five inter-collegiate debates.

Mr. Johnson will receive the degree of proficiency because he has been active in debate for two years. The remainder of the group will receive the degree of fraternity.

Dr. Gilbert Smith will receive an honorary membership in the fraternity at the annual ceremony. He was selected for the honor because of his four years of service on the faculty debate committee and the active interest that he has displayed in the forensics program.

Mr. Gaylord, an alumnus of River Falls and a member of Pi Kappa Delta, will talk on ideas that have developed from experience in debate.

The initiation ceremony will be conducted by the fraternity's officers, Larry Henneman, president; Arlen Christenson, vice-president; and Beverly Domalka, secretary-treasurer.

The Editor Speaks . . .

In choosing next year's Student Senate members, our only hope is that the student body will use the same good judgement that they displayed in choosing the present Senate. With the nominating assembly and the election less than two weeks away, we want to congratulate the Senate for the job that they have done during the past year and caution students against selecting the new Senate by a "vote for your buddy election."

The Student Senate has charge of all school activities and large scale events throughout the year. We feel that the need for selecting capable members is self-evident. The Senate is without a faculty advisor. It is designed to provide a STUDENT voice in college affairs as well as take care of routine matters that are necessary to the smooth functioning of a school.

The Social committee is nominated by the Senate. Instrumental in planning the social calendar for the entire college, the committee is one of the busiest groups on campus. The Senate is responsible for the appropriations made from the student activity ticket fund. It has indirect control over organizations in that their constitutions must be approved by the Student Senate before they are considered a legal campus group.

In explaining the duties of the Senate it has been our aim to point out the obvious, that our Student Senators should truly be campus leaders. In choosing them, keep in mind that capability, not popularity, should be the criterion.

Vets Continue Childrens Day Event

by Rolond Baker

Celebrating its 10th anniversary this year is the Veterans club at RF college. The student Veterans club met for the first time on June 13, 1946 with a new constitution and a membership of 56.

One of the objectives of the new organization listed in the official constitution was, "To perpetuate the memory of those who gave their lives and to assist their widows and children." The official motto of the Veterans club is: "We aim for better citizenship."

This year the Club will have its second annual Children's Day at River Falls. Children between the ages of seven and 14 from five counties have been invited. These include Pierce, Polk, Dunn, Pepin and St. Croix.

The children will arrive at the college on May 5 at 9 a.m. During the rest of the morning they will be given a complete tour of the campus, play games, and enjoy the swimming pool. A free dinner will be served and after dinner an hour-long movie will be shown.

A treasure hunt will start the afternoon. A gift for each child will be hidden someplace on campus and each child will look for his own gift. After everyone has found his gift, the children will be given pop and ice cream.

The veterans stage a Variety Show every spring to finance the Children's Day. This year, the show made about $100 in profits which is about the amount required to finance the Children's Day program. Approximately 80 children are expected to attend, this is about the same attendance as last year.

The Club takes an active part in Homecoming on the campus. They sponsor a candidate for queen, a float for the parade, house decorations and a store window display. This year the club won first prize in house decorations, first prize for window display, second prize for the skit and third place for their float. The total amount of prize money was $50.

The Club has an intramural basketball team and an all-school bowling tournament during the Winter quarter.

The Veterans also originated the idea of sending a River Falls representative to the Winter Carnival in St. Paul.

Rec Day—Assignment of jobs is being made for the day. There will be a Senate sponsored picnic during the evening. Entertainment for the day will also include a dance and baseball game.

Officers Training School—suggestions for speakers and discussion panel members for the activity were discussed. It was suggested we use short movies in the group meetings but nothing was decided.

Approval for candidacy and list of honorary positions — Charlie Face moved that organization elections, not of an all-school nature, be in accordance with the constitution of said organization. over an organization except in the approval of organization constitutions, which should contain election procedure. The motion was passed unanimously.

Dick Schultz moved the following: that honorary positions which the Senate feels require both academic standards and petitions include Homecoming Queen, Winter Carnival King and Snow Queen, in the event that the college sponsors a person for the position.

These standards shall be a 1 pt. grade average, and the candidate shall not be on probation at the time that the petition is circulated. The petitions will be signed by 50 persons. Petitions will be obtained in the Deans' office at which time, scholastic approval will also be secured. After scholastic approval and signatures have been secured, the petitions shall be submitted to the Student Senate. Candidates for Homecoming Chairman and Winter Carnival Chairwoman will be selected by the Student Senate. The motion was passed.

A new attraction at Stout's Union has been the addition of six photographic murals. The pictures are actual scenes from basketball games, the metal shop, the campus, the Homecoming parade, football games and the woodworking shop. Plans to add more are being made.

All college students are being urged by the National Chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties to take a more active part in politics. Paul Butler, Democrat, pointed out that "Our political parties are the chief instruments of politics." In Republican Leonard Hall's statement, he quoted President Eisenhower to the effect that participation is inevitable since by not voting, "you double the value of the vote of anyone who does not believe as you do."

Milwaukee has introduced "Varsity Drags" in an effort to meet the social needs of the college and also to enliven spirit at the campus recreation center. These activities are held every Friday evening. The programs include dancing, playing table tennis, billiards, cards, watching TV and listening to records. They have proved to be a big success.

For the third consecutive year, the famed Dublin Players will appear at Stevens Point. They are touring the United States and

by Wm. Hagestad

THOMAS WOLFE'S "OF TIME AND THE RIVER"; "THE LEG- END OF A MAN'S HUNGER IN HIS YOUTH."

This book is a continuation of the life of Eugene Gant begun in "Look Homeward, Angel." It is the story of the incredible wanderings of the protagonist in search for answers to equally incredible questions. Throughout the book, answers seem to be gotten by finding a "quiet place to settle down and write" or "a place where the people aren't petty", etc. If he can find a place like that, he has his answer.

Wolfe never poses the question with which Gant is beset in so many words. The questions are a part of the fiber of the story and are really ones of the why of man's existence. What is his purpose on this earth? How can he justify his pitiful position? With these, the story takes on the proportions of a modern odyssey embodying expositions of the answers Gant's acquaintances have found. Throughout these sections there runs a magnificent verbal Miserere—in itself a completely unpropitious commentary upon these persons' answers.

By telling himself that "a quiet place to write" or "a place where pettiness is nonexistent" would answer the questions his soul is asking him, Eugene Gant becomes symbolical of the dissuading force exerted by society toward any "non-legitimate" soul molification. This symbolical force that is within Gant is not fighting alone for domination of Gant's being.

Within him also is an angel of the forces of beauty and truth; an angel, the like of which Lawrence made dominant in his Paul Morel and which Joyce made dominant in Stephen Daedalus.

It is this angel within one which allows one to perceive beauty and know truth. Without this angel, one is completely reconciled to this civilization and this age, is wholly dead. One without this power of recognition and knowledge is not a being with spirit. One does not look for this—Wolfe assumes this fact.

The book is further an investigation of the degree to which many answers do not constitute answers at all to Gant-Morrel-Daedalus type questions.

The questions which these personifications of their authors ask are questions hardly definite, (hence the fear regarded them). The answers to them requires for their acceptance, a certain renunciation of the efficacy of definitely ingrown, in-cultured entities. This is on the condition that the answers are found. Wolfe's exhortation is to search and be not comfortable.

Upon reading the column written by the young Democrats, we couldn't help but notice the obvious exclusion of several facts. The first omission was that in spite of the so-called administrative deficiencies, the gross national product now stands at a record high of over 200 billion dollars.

Also, they overlooked the fact that present unemployment stands at approximately three million, one of the lowest annual averages since 1935, excepting the years during World War II. Unemployment is now less than 4 per cent of the total labor force. It has been pointed out that when unemployment gets below five per cent, the availability of skills in many areas approaches zero.

A further examination of the present economy reveals that wages have been increasing con-

Road Games Next For Track Team, Baseball Squad

The College's baseball and track teams will both be on the road this week as Bill Solley's nine meets Eau Claire State Thursday and Fran Polsfoot's thinclads travel to St. Cloud Saturday.

Solley will probably pitch Ken Barrows in the Eau Claire tilt, which is scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. The Falcons split their league openers with Mankato Saturday 4-8 and 8-7. Barrows was the loser in the first game, while Louie Johnson was credited with the victory in the second contest. A 16-man traveling squad will make the trip, and the same starting lineup that faced Mankato will probably open against the Blugolds.

St. Cloud State Teachers College will be host to a quadrangular track and field meet which includes River Falls, St. John's, Winona and St. Cloud on April 28. The Falcons appear to be tougher than Winona, a team they have outpointed on two occasions so far this season. The rugged Mankato squad is favored to take the meet. Paced by senior Lee Lowan, the 'Kato-men walked off with the Carleton Relays title Saturday. The Mankato event is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m.

Volleyball Finals Scheduled Tonight

The intramural volleyball teams will wind up their seasons with the final games scheduled for tonight. A tournament composed of the top two teams from each league will begin tomorrow night, April 24, and run through Thursday, April 26.

Topping last week's action, undefeated team 6 broke a first place tie by edging out team 5, 15-6, 13-15 and 15-9. Team 6 now stands with 5 wins, 0 losses, with no games remaining. Team 5, with 4-1, has also completed the season and will appear in the tournament.

Team 7 leads the B league with a 4-0 record while teams 9 and 11 are tied for second with 3-1.

In C league, team 16 broke a first place tie and preserved its perfect 5-0 record by defeating team 13, 15-6. Team 13 is second with 4-1.

In other intramural activities, the softball season has been scheduled to start Monday, April 30. According to coach Fran Polsfoot not many teams have entered so far but more are expected during this last week before the season begins.

Van Someren Lundeen

Lundeen, Van Someren Win Badminton Doubles

Ken Lundeen and Paul Van Someren won the finals of the intramural doubles badminton tournament last Monday night but were forced to come from behind in doing it.

Lundeen and Van Someren lost the first game to runners-up Al Forsythe and Vern Steinmetz, 15-8, but came back to tie it up with a 15-9 second game victory, then went on to completely dominate the third match 15-6.

Neither team had been pushed to any extent in their previous games. The highest score against the winners was nine, made by

River Falls Splits Twin Bill With Mankato

'Kato Wins Opener, 8-4

by Harley Larson

Lefthander Jerry Cashill pitched four-hit ball and struck out eight in hurling Mankato State Teachers College to an 8-4 victory over River Falls in the first half of the Falcons' doubleheader opener here Saturday.

Mankato got only three hits off the pitching of Ken Barrows and Paul Johnson, but took advantage of 11 base on balls and a six-run fifth inning in which ten men went to bat.

In the big fifth inning, Mankato loaded the bases when the first man grounded out to short and the next three batters were safe on errors. Arnold walked, forcing in a run. A wild pitch sent in another run. Barrows then walked Hoffman and Tom Musser to force in the third run of the inning and load the bases. John Hinaschenko hit one to short that went past Holland into left field, scoring Arnold and Hoffman and enabling Musser to move to third. He scored minutes later on a sacrifice fly by Bruce Owens to make it 7-2. Barrows then got Jack Ploof to fly to center to end the inning.

The Falcons cut it to 7-4 in their half of the fifth when Steffen got on base on an error and Suezaki drew a walk. Steffen then came home on a single by Rog Roffler and Suezaki followed him when Roffler's hit got past the right fielder.

Mankato added their final run in the sixth when Harold Mulhean and Arnold hit back-to-back singles and Hoffman and Musser walked to force in a run.

Cashill was the winning pitcher while Barrows, who pitched the first five and two-thirds innings for River Falls, was charged with the loss.

Lundeen and Van Someren also added wins over Marv Herges-Fred Kalantari and John Rutter-Gene Luebker. Luebker won the singles championship the week before. Forsythe and Steinmetz also won from Paul Larson and Bob Aebly.

Nine teams or a total of 18 players took part in the tournament which ran about two hours, from 6:45 to 8:45.

TENSION! Poised for the pitch in this action shot from Saturday's opener with Mankato are umpire Les Koehler, 'Kato catcher Larry Arnold and Falcon second baseman John Steffen.

La Crosse Track Team Wins; Falcons Set Three RF Marks

River Falls State and Winona Teachers ran into a high-geared La Crosse State track team Saturday afternoon and came out of the triangular meet on the short ends of a tremendously high count. The final score: La Crosse 115½, River Falls 32, Winona 13½.

Roger Huser set two school records for the Falcons and Phil Kuss notched one, but all three marks were set in second place finishes! Huser ran the 100 in 10.0 and the 220 in 22.0 to eclipse the former records set by him last year and last week respectively. Yet he finished about a stride behind La Crosse's Les Mooney in both races. Mooney was clocked in 9.9 for the 100 and 21.9 for the 220. Kuss ran the 440 in 52.7 to break the record of 53.5 he set the week before against Winona and Eau Claire, but he finished second to La Crosse's Tom Richardson who ran the distance in 52.1.

Vern Parker and Joel Dahlby garnered the Falcons' only two firsts in the meet. La Crosse copped 13 firsts and Winona had none. Parker ran the mile in 4:45.5 and Dahlby reeled of a beautifully paced two mile to win in 10:35.5, only half a second off the school record.

Del Mottaz, who tied for fourth in the pole vault, hit the bar on one of his leaps, shattered his glasses and suffered an eye cut that required four stitches to close. Other River Falls points came on Kuss' second place in the 880, Dahlby's third in the mile, Bob Koplins' third in the shot put, Earl Zimmerman's tie for second in the high jump, Dick Zamjahn's fourth in the broad jump and the 880 relay team's second place finish.

Falcons Triumph, 8-7

by Harley Larson

Marv Hanson lined a single into left field with two out in the eighth inning to drive in John Steffen from third and give River Falls a 8-7 win and a split in the Saturday doubleheader with Mankato. Hanson had entered the game in the previous inning for Rog Roffler who injured his leg in stealing home.

River Falls scored six runs in the second inning when ten men came to bat. Gene Luebker singled to right to open the inning. Vern Steinmetz walked. Dick Hoffman then doubled down the left field foul line scoring both runners. Steffen flied out to Bob Fossum at short for the first out. Johnson followed with a single moving Hoffman to third. Hoffman then scored on a single between short and third by Al Suezaki. Pitcher Jim Duncan set down Max Langer on strikes for the second out but Roffler followed with his second hit of the game, a single to right, and Suezaki scored when the ball rolled past Jahnke in right field. George Holland then hit a grounder through Fossum into right field to make it 6-2. Duncan struck out Luebker to end the inning.

Mankato came back to tie it up in the third. Hoffman singled, Jahnke walked and Owens singled to load the bases. Jack Ploof singled to score Hoffman and Jahnke and moved Owens to third. Ploof then stole second and came home behind Owens when Suezaki bobbled a ground ball hit off the bat of Fossum.

The Falcons went ahead in the seventh when Roffler, who had three hits in the game and five straight hits for the afternoon, walked and advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt and an infield out. Then with two out and the count 3-2 on the batter, he stole home.

Mankato tied it up in their half of the seventh when Bruce Owens teed off and drove one deep into center field for a homerun to send the game into extra innings and set the stage for Hanson's game winning blow.

RF pitcher Gerald "Lou Johnson got credit for the win, while Dick Klassen was charged with the loss.

Playing at the shortstop position for River Falls this season is George Holland, sophomore from River Falls. George was graduated from Miltown high school in 1948. He attended the University of Minnesota for one year where he played on the freshman baseball team.

George played for Sioux Falls of the Northern League until 1952 when he suffered a shoulder separation midway through the season. His batting average until then was .275. He also played two years of ball in the army at Ft. Carson and was a member of the Spring Valley Class A championship team last year.

GEORGE HOLLAND

He is majoring in biology with minors in phy ed and history.

George says his biggest thrill in sports came during his first game in pro ball at Sioux Falls. He came up to pinch hit for the pitcher in the eighth inning with the bases loaded, two out and Sioux Falls trailing Superior 6-3. He doubled off the right field fence to tie up the ball game. While he was playing shortstop in the ninth, Superior went ahead again 8-6. In the last of the ninth, with the bases loaded and the score tied again, George came up to bat and hit a single to win the game!

RFSC Golf Team To Meet Bethel

A four-man golf team from River Falls State will be in action at Como Golf Course in St. Paul this Thursday in a dual match with Bethel College. Ollie Guest, who organized the team several weeks ago, announces that the four representatives will be chosen on the basis of high qualifying scores which must be posted by noon Wednesday.

The meet will be conducted under match play rules with a single point going to winners of each match. Golfers currently bidding for a berth on the squad are Guest, Rod Adolph, Don Siebold, Frank Oas, Bob Gerlach and Bill LaRue. They'll probably shoot their qualifying rounds at New Richmond since the local course is being revamped in preparation for the coming summer golf season.

SPORTS IN A NUTSHELL

by Rog

The University of Wisconsin boxing team made history when they took five of the 10 weight division championships in the NCAA boxing tournament held last week-end at Madison. Winning their seventh Association crown, the Badgers will enter their champions in the olympic ring tryouts to compete for berths on the 1956 United States olympic squad.

Another interesting sidelight to the opening of the 1956 baseball season is found in the Pacific Coast League, which started playing a week ahead of the majors.

Just two years ago the teams in the PCL were crying to be cut loose from their bonds as farm clubs of big league teams. This season Sacramento is the only club which does not have some sort of agreement with a big league team and all are boasting of their big rosters with young, talented players sent down for one more year of experience.

Crossed Wires Lead to Life's Ambition

Some crossed wires and a blown fuse have led 13-year old Ken Majeski to an ambition in engineering and an illustrated featured article in the April issue of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association's monthly school-age publication, the Junior Crusader.

According to the article, Ken, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Majeski, has already assembled an electric motor and holds conversations with his friends over his cigar-box "telephone."

"I started to fool with electricity when I thought I could make an old 50-foot extension cord work better," Ken relates. "I got some wires crossed and blew a fuse. I couldn't understand why; so I took the cord apart. It still didn't work, but I made little cords of it."

"Now I understand electricity pretty well and hope someday to be an engineer," Ken says. He attends the eighth grade of the Wisconsin State College Campus School. This spring he hopes to make a car from an old gas motor used on his father's 160-acre farm.

Typical of melodramas of the period were "Oleos," song and dance routines between acts. These will be presented in the Monday night production by members of the cast.

TWO SCHOOL GIRLS WIN DRAWING PRIZES

Two campus school students won prizes recently in the annual Florence Mears Art Contest. Their drawings were exhibited April 6 at the Tuesday Club bi-county convention at Burkhardt. Jerilyn Richardson won first prize with "Greek Ruins." Susan Stone won second prize with "The Old Mill Stream."

The bi-county prize winners were exhibited at the Ninth District Convention at Black River Falls where they were judged again April 19. Results have not yet been announced.

The girls are eighth grade students in Miss Opal Knox's art class.

NEWMAN MEMBERS ATTEND CONVENTION

A delegation of 15 Newman club members attended the North Central Province Newman Club Convention at the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks, April 13-15.

The North Central Province is made up of Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, and upper Michigan. The keynote address of the convention was delivered by Reverend Philip F. Pockock, Archbishop of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

school year. Another student who will be teaching kindergarten is Colleen Ryan, from Hudson. Miss Ryan has agreed to teach in a White Bear Lake, Minn., school.

Letch

Shodahl

Two students who have signed to teach in Bloomington, Minn., next year are Ivadell Letch, from Luck, and Shirley Shodahl, from Grantsburg. Mrs. Letch will be teaching in the third grade and Mrs. Shodahl will teach in the fourth grade.

Knudtson

Donald Knudtson, from Fall Creek, is the third person who has signed a contract this year to teach vocational agriculture. Mr. Knudtson will teach pupils in the Osceola high school next year.

At this time last year, 27 River Falls students had signed for teaching jobs. The bureau has placed 28 students this year. In addition to this number, three ag students have positions as vocational agriculture instructors next year. Only one student has been placed in a non-teaching job.

Of the 28 students placed by the bureau, 19 of them have signed contracts to teach in the elementary grades, five in kindergarten, and four are scheduled to instruct high school pupils. Last year during this time, 21 students had signed agreements to teach at the elementary level, three in kindergarten, and three of them were placed in high schools.

There is an indication that a number of students in the Division of Agriculture will accept positions in non-teaching fields. John May, director of the Division, said that representatives of several large corporations have held interviews with a number of seniors.

The companies mentioned were: Kraft Chees Co., Cities Service Oil Co., and the Farmco Co-operative at Madison. Most of the companies are interested in getting men with a degree in agriculture to act as field men or sales representatives.

stantly. For example, the auto workers during the first half of 1955 averaged $97.37 a week, the steel workers received $92.30 a week and bituminous coal miners obtained $93.92.

Besides those items mentioned above, it should be recognized that an added six billion dollars is expected to be invested by industry in 1956. This investment prediction was made following the growing optimism due to President Eisenhower's decision to seek re-election. From this investment, new jobs and new opportunities will undoubtedly flow.

The most spectacular aspect of this growth and prosperity is the fact that it has occurred when the United States is not actively engaged in either a war or a major policing action.
