VOLUME—XXXI NUMBER—1

RIVER FALLS, WISCONSIN

THURSDAY SEPT. 19, 1946

OVER 100 MEN TURN OUT FOR FOOTBALL

The 1946 football campaign opened officially Monday, Sept. 9 at River Falls State Teachers College. Head Coach George Schlagenhaut welcomed over 100 candidates to the first practice session. Schlagenhaut is assisted this season by Line Coach Berger Kolberg and O. J. Sjowall.

Included in the 100 or more men drawing grid equipment are nineteen lettermen; sixteen of which won letters at R.F.S.T.C. in previous seasons while three others were awarded letters at other schools. The lettermen include Al Linster '43; Harry Frojker '42; Fred Ubbelode '41, '42, '43; Dave Ruhsom '42; Bob Olson '42; Carl Wichman '43; Eugene Wirz '43, '44, '45; Jim Moore '45; Dick Swenson '45; Dick Berggren '45; Gordon Schock '45; Bob Smith '44 Harold Le June '42; Warren Johnson '45; Jim Redmond '44, '45; Norval Olson '45; Arnold Feiler, '43; Wayne Sinnen '42; and from other schools are Joe Swisston, Oshkosh Teachers '41 '42; Jack Rudy, St. Olaf '43 '44; and Dick Paynter, Gustavus Adolphus '44.

Besides these returning lettermen, there are dozen of outstanding candidates. Many starred in high school competition and several played football while in the armed forces. Competition is keen for all positions, and the first team berths are wide open.

Coach Schlagenhaut has started body contact work in order to determine his leading players. For the past several days, backfield units have been racing through signal drills and plays, while Line Coach Kolberg has been sending linemen through strenuous blocking drills. Scrimmages have been held the last few days with these showing the defense to be ahead of the offense, which, of course, is to be expected.

The football outlook is promising and River Falls can be assured of a good, tough team, but it is to be remembered that the Falcon's opponents will also have big, fast, powerful elevens.

The Falcons play an eight game schedule, and no breather is in sight. Five games will be at River Falls while three will be on foreign gridirons. The STUDENT VOICE wishes the best of luck to the 1946 Falcon team, and strongly urges the entire student body to attend all games.

ALL SCHOOL PARTY HELD LAST WEEK

An all-school party was held on the evening of September 10, as a follow-up to the Freshman 'mixer' the night before. It was equally as successful, and it quite adequately achieved its goal - that of getting acquainted with one's many fellow students.

There, as elsewhere about the campus these postwar days, an overwhelming number of first-year students was very much in evidence returning servicemen predominant. The shortage of feminine students, while noted, proved to be less of a handicap than would be suspected.

"Peggy an Steve", a capable three piece band from New Richmond, Wis., provided the music for the gathering. In all, it was an agreeable beginning to college social life.

PRES. KLEINPELL GREET'S STUDENTS

When the 671 students of R.F.S.T.C. marched into the North Hall auditorium for the first official assembly meeting of the year they were greeted by a new presiding officer, Dr. Eugene H. Kleinpell. The faculty members who have served here during the past 30 years went to the same meeting and heard a new president's welcoming address for the first time.

DR. EUGENE H. KLEINPELL

"The day of the incompetent is past," Dr. Kleinpell stated in his opening address and assured everyone that the doors of his office were always open, that students could come to him with any problem, and that he would do his best to help.

The new president comes to River Falls from Valley City, No. Dakota, where he served four years as president. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Iowa, his M.A. from the University of Chicago, and his Ph. D. from Ohio State University. His major interest has always been history. He began his teaching career at Kemper Military school, Boonville, Missouri, in 1926. Later he taught at Central Missouri Teachers college at Warrensburg, Missouri; Northern Montana college at Havre, Montana; Morningside college at Sioux City, Iowa, and before going to Valley City, he was chairman of the department of social science at Marysville, Missouri, State Teachers college.

Dr. Kleinpell assumed his duties on the campus on July 1, but to date has not succeeded in moving into a house that he and Mrs. Kleinpell might call a permanent home. At present they are living upstairs in the student infirmary. They are hoping that the health of the student body remains good since they cannot move into the house they bought until October 1. Housing is a subject of more than usual interest to the Kleinpells, and they have spent many hours working out ways to house the new faculty members and the record postwar enrollment.

Freshmen Have Mixer

Last Monday evening, September ninth, the freshman had their first big get-acquainted dance. Smooth music was furnished by the Black Hawk Aces.

In addition to straight dancing there were several special 'mixers' a 'broom' dance, a Cinderella dance, and a circle two step.

Refreshments consisted of ice cream cones. The Mixer was sponsored by the YMCA and the YWCA and proved to be a great success.

LOEB SERVES WAR DEPARTMENT IN TOKYO

Miss Helen Loeb, who was granted a leave of absence from the Speech department three years ago to join the WAC, is in Tokyo at present.

In April Miss Loeb left California for Tokyo to accept a position as a civilian employee with the War Department. She is now doing administrative work for the Department.

Miss Loeb taught Speech here for five years before entering the service.

VETS OCCUPY OLD BARRACKS

The barracks apartments, which were started last spring and finished this summer, are now being occupied by married veterans. The old barracks provides twenty-one lovely apartments; each one is equipped with refrigerator, hot plate, and bathroom. Three of the apartments have a separate bedroom, while the rest consist of only one room.

A room is provided in the basement for a washroom. Two new Maytag washing machines are the main attraction; stationary tubs and clotheslines complete the room.

Another room in the basement contains large lockers where suitcases, trunks, and even canned foods may be stored. Other store rooms are located elsewhere on the two floors of the building.

The apartments are not only lovely, but are serving a great purpose to the school. It is the hope of everyone in school that more projects, such as this one, may be formulated before too long.

Veterans and their wives living in the apartments are: Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Vanderhouse, Forestville, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Erling W. Hansen, Chetek, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Glauner, St. Paul, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene F. Cardinal, Chippewa Falls, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Markowski, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilkinson, Benton, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Hedlund, Clear Lake, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett E. Kaul, Toni, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Weidmer, Casco, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Braitluvaite, Viola, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Anderson, River Falls, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Kerley, Skokie, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Brown, River Falls, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Hansen, Chetek, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Hillert, Granton, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Albin Vodak, Madison, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ubbelohde, New Richmond, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Karnes, Menomonie, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn D. Roberts, Hammond, Wis.; and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Doering, Dundas, Wis.

JUNIORS ELECT SATHER

By unanimous vote, at a Junior Class meeting held last Tuesday, Marvin Sather was moved from the vice-presidency to the presidency to head the Junior Class for 1946-47.

Gordon Vine was elected vice-president to fill that vacancy.

The other officers, who were elected last year, are Ann Laufenberg, secretary and Joyce Julian, treasurer.

The largest freshman enrollment in the history of R.F.S.T.C. was tabulated today (Thursday). Over four hundred freshmen have registered thus far, bringing the total enrollment to six hundred seventy-one students. An estimation of five percent increase is anticipated for the fall term, advancing the total enrollment to exceed seven hundred students. At this date, the number enrolled in each course has not been fully determined. More complete information will be available next week.

Dean Stratton has reported a total of five hundred six men students. Thus far he has three hundred thirty nine freshman men registered with him. There are three hundred forty six veterans taking advantage of the G.I. Bill of Rights; three of this number are women students. Several other veterans are returning to or attending, college for the first time that are not registered under this Bill.

Miss Hathorn has one hundred sixty five women students registered. There are eighty freshman women and eighty five in the upper classes, six of whom are transfer students. The states of Wyoming and Pennsylvania are represented.

The chemistry, biology, mathematics, and freshman agriculture classes have noted a definite increase, making these classes overcrowded. Due to the unusually large freshman enrollment, senior college classes are small.

Rooming facilities have been met for all students most successfully. The Dean of Women and the Dean of Men wish to thank the people of River Falls for making this possible. During the summer months the student body canvassed the city and met with the best possible cooperation. This drive enabled many students to attend school who otherwise would have been turned away.

FACULTY RETURN FROM SERVICE

R.F.S.T.C. extends a warm welcome to Mr. B. H. Rozehal and Mr. Berger Kolberg who have returned after spending a long period of time in the service.

Mr. Rozehal spent one year studying at the Conservatory of Music in Prague, Czechoslovakia. He received his Master's Degree at Northwestern University and later attended the Busch Conservatory at Chicago. In 1932 he came to R.F.S.T.C. filling the position on the faculty as music teacher.

Entering the service in March 1943 he served in the Army Air Forces for three and one-half years in Texas and later with the C. I. C. in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mr. Kolberg attended R.F.S.T.C. and the University of Wisconsin. Prior to his becoming a member of the College faculty he taught chemistry at the River Falls high school. In January 1943 he joined the College faculty teaching chemistry. He joined the Navy in June '43 and served thirty months spending nine months in the Caribbean and eastern seaports, four months in Miami, Florida, and one year in the central Pacific theater (Philippines, Okinawa and China). On January 7, 1946 he received his discharge and returned this fall to R. F. S. T. C. teaching chemistry and filling the position of football line coach.

The Student Voice

Accepted as second class matter by the Post Office at River Falls, Wisconsin under the act of Congress, March 3, 1889. Subscription rate, $1.25 per year. IT'S TOO TRUE

There are very few people in the world who are loath to admit that they know nothing about the Chinese stock-market, ballistics, atomic energy, or falcon-hunting. However, there is not one man, woman or child who does not know how to cure hiccoughs.

One can be the most modest, reticent person in the world until someone in his presence develops a case of hiccoughs. He immediately becomes an arrogant know-it-all. He has not one, but two or three different methods of curing the affliction.

"Hiccoughs?" he asks. "That's simple. Just put your head under your arm, hold your nose and count to ten - thousand by threes. It always works." When the cure does NOT work, he assures you that if you had followed his directions, you would have had no more trouble. He also implies darkly that hiccoughs are not your trouble.

"My cure can't be expected to work on drunkenness, you know."

While compiling a complete list of hiccough cures, I ran across the following:

1. Place the head in a pail of water, inhaling deeply for two minutes.
2. Bend the body sideways until the head touches the floor, then sing, "Indian Love Call." (Two complete choruses.)
3. Chew waxed paper.
4. Arrange to have somebody care for you.

The results of these cures have been very disheartening. I suffer from incipient drowning still. I have suffered from lock-jaw, heart failure, arsenic poisoning, four torn ligaments, and one other malaise which I cannot definitely place just yet.

Recently I was told that by holding a bag over your face and yelling, all the while hitting it gently, you could easily rid yourself of the hiccoughs. I went to my room immediately and went through the given procedure. The bag, of course, covered my eyes, so you see, I was quite in the dark about the whole thing. But I digress.

I blew the bag up and held it in the required position. I then cavorted about the room breathing very hard and deeply - so as to get the full benefit of the cure. I did

Droop Snoops

To Whom It May Concern:

Don't look now, but you're being followed. Yep, Droop snoops again this year - and I do mean snoops! Your private life ends here. Your every move is tabulated for publication in this column. But don't let this shocking news scare you out because it is only in keeping with the STUDENT VOICE policy of giving a complete coverage of campus news.

Droop reports that a lot of the fellows are getting worried about their date prospects for the year. In fact, while strolling through the library the other day, Droop saw a couple of upper class fellows deeply absorbed in a copy of Dale Carnegie's book, "How To Win Friends and Influence People." Droop wonders if Mr. Carnegie thought of including a chapter on "How To Win and Influence Women".

It seemed good to see such a big crowd out for the opening college dances. Droop is hoping the enthusiasm keeps up so that he'll have plenty of dirt for this column in the weeks to come.

But surprising as it may be, Droop saw an astounding number of girls making their way homeward alone after the dance in spite of the enormous stag line that filled half of the dance floor. What's the matter fellows - bashful?

Droop was hampered in his snooping so far because he hasn't had a chance to get acquainted, but just give him a few days, and he'll have plenty of snooping to fill this column.

this for nearly five minutes without removing the bag.

When I finally removed the bag, I found myself the object of the terrified scrutiny of my parents who had entered the room without my knowledge. They had already assembled two collaborating witnesses from next door. When I told them that I was curing hiccoughs, my mother fainted dead away. I am still watched pretty closely around home.

And I still have my hiccoughs.

VOICE INTERVIEWS

PROFESSOR KING

Because The STUDENT VOICE would like better to acquaint the student body with the new members of our faculty, we are beginning a series of articles on our new faculty members.

The first teacher interviewed was our new choral music teacher, Mr. Chauncey B. King came to us from the University of Oklahoma, where he had previously taught for several years. He received his Bachelor of Music degree at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, and his master's degree in Musical Education at Northwestern University.

As to the propinquity of jazz and the classics, Mr. King readily admits that he would very much dislike dancing to Bach or Beethoven. He believes "that music should suit the occasion for which it is being used".

Mr. King relates that he has no specific hobbies, but he is quite a sports enthusiast; golf and tennis being his main diversions.

Mr. King certainly does not suggest the stereotyped college professor. He is interesting, friendly, and satirically humorous.

Incidentally, Mr. King is looking for altos and tenors for his mixed choral group. He would like to inform the student body that try outs will be given any time next week in his office, which is 310 in South Hall.

"A FRESHMAN'S WOE"

I have come from a small town in this state, To college I've come to learn of my fate. A great many things will I learn in college, I'll cram my brain chuck full of knowledge But my week has long begun, and soon it will pass, And I still stand in wonder and sigh alas. I've studied like mad this whole first week, For more knowledge of the world I was out to seek. But now I am weary and tired and full of woe, For all I've learned is how little I know. Marlis Voskuil.

Grid Personalities

Robert McCardle, a two year Navy veteran, received his letter in the fall of 1943 after starring at Spring Valley High School. He played tackle when here before entering the service but is being used as a guard this year. He is five feet, nine inches tall, and he tips the scales at 213 pounds. Bob is unclassified at the present time, but would like to major in history or psychology.

Gene Wirz, who comes from Chipewa Falls, prepped at Rice Lake High School where he received 3 football letters. Gene is working for his fourth college letter in football this year, and should he achieve this goal, it will be a feat very seldom accomplished. Gene is a senior, weighs 180 pounds, and stands six feet tall. He plans to teach chemistry and coach after graduating next spring.

Harry Frokjer played his high school football at Centuria, Wis., where he received two letters. After lettering here in 1942 he entered the Marines and was sent to Gustavus Adolphus, where he received a football letter. After leaving there Harry played one year for the Camp Lejuene, N.C., Marine base team. He is six feet tall and weighs 190 pounds, is a junior majoring in agriculture, and plans to teach upon graduation.

GRADS OF 45-46

Sixty-seven students were graduated from the River Falls State Teacher's College during the 1945-46 school year. Of this total nineteen were from the secondary division and eighteen from the agriculture department. Twelve students received their four year degrees in elementary education, while nine received their three year certificates in this field.

The Editor Says

With this issue The STUDENT VOICE turns a corner. After three war years of many and diverse handicaps, the VOICE is back to normal. It will be more nearly the STUDENT VOICE which some of you "oldsters" remember from pre-war days.

We are back to full size pages, and we will devote plenty of space to sports news, both intercollegiate and intra-mural. Athletics will be big news from now on, and our coverage will be complete.

Last week-end the campus seemed deserted. Everybody, it seemed, went home for one reason or another. We hope that such will not be the case every week-end. Howard Hannon, head of the Student Senate, has asked me to make it known that the Senate will try to arrange to have a dance, or some other campus entertainment, on each Friday night. These dan-

COACH HAS BRIGHT PROSPECTS

Coach George Schlagenhaut is a graduate of Neenah High school and Lawrence College. He came to River Falls after spending 15 years at St. Croix Falls and two years at Madison East High school. At Lawrence College Schlagenhaut received letters in both football and basketball.

Coach Schagenhaut is married and has two children, George, Jr. and Ruth. He and his family reside on the corner of Main street and Cascade avenue.

Commenting on this year's football prospects, he states that we will have a light but exceptionally fast team, and one that is capable of playing an interesting game of football.

ces and other social functions are an essential part of college life.

So, how about it, fellow seekers-after-knowledge? Let's stick around on week-ends and join in the fun. We can make this year the liveliest one in River Falls annals.

While we are on the subject of college doings, let's not forget football. The Falcons are going to be a great team this year, and they would like to play before packed stands.

The VOICE extends a hearty welcome to all students. I know that the whole staff joins me in this, and we would like especially to say to you freshmen and new students, "We hope you like your school, your campus organizations, and your paper". Yes, it's your paper. If you have any suggestions feel free to submit them. The Editor
