Aug. 10, 1915

So live that when thy summons comes to join,
 The innominate caravan which moves to that mysterious realm.

That each may take his chamber in the silent halls of death Thou go not like the quary slave at night scourged to dundun but sustained and soothed by an unflattering trust approached thy grave like one who raps the drapery of his couch about him and lay down to pleasant dreams.
